COURTSHIP WITHOUT COST. Miss Stickle Lent Money to Johnson and Paid the Fares.

Miss Mary X. Stickle, of Plainfield, N. J., has begun suit in the Supreme Court against Louis F. Johnson, a civil engineer in the employ of the New York Central and Hudson River Redirond, to recover $1,965. Of this amount $1,200 is for the loss of her business and the remainder is said to be money loaned.

Miss Stickle alleges that she formerly had a lucrative business as a trained nurse. She first met Johnson, she saya, at the house of a friend, and they afterwards became engaged to be married. She alleges that Johnson induced her to give up her business, and promised to "look after her."

She further alleges she advanced him several sums, varying from $45 to $100 and bought a commutation ticket to Plainfield for him, so he might court her free of charge.

A short time ago Miss Stickle says she ascertained that Johnson has a wife and a tweive-year-old daughter.

Johnson says he made Miss Stickle's acquaintance—through a "personal," which he answered as a Joke.

Ever since, he says, he has been pursued by Miss Stickle, who has forced presents of money on him. He denley the engagement, and says he regarded the affair as an innocent firtation. Railroad, to recover $1,665. Of this
